Glad to hear you have an outlet for taking out frustration. Sounds like good therapy after months of deal making.

Stay safe.

Hi Brooks,

Diving is going well. We had a safe day, and are adjusting to our COVID procedures...sure does add some extra steps. I enjoyed hammering probes into 2 feet of armored cap under 30 feet of water. It's peaceful down there, and you can get out all your stress banging away.

I think (b)(5) attorney-client, (b)(5)

Kris-

I hope the dive trip is going well and everyone there is staying safe and comfortable.
Just got back on site today myself. Apparently during the last couple days of the week
